The intellect of an angel is not equal to the comprehension of it! How much less man s 1 Yet when the Spirit of God has made poor man acquainted with the depth of his degradation, and pointed out to him the great Deliverer, though he cannot scale the heights or fathom the depths of redeeming love, though his intellect be weak, and the power of his imagination feeble, he feels that he ought to stand forth and say a word for his Lord, and tell the world what has been made plain to him by his God. Intellect God needs not to proclaim His truths. Excellency of speech is discouraged by the great apostle. Ordinary intelligence, then, so that it is sanctified, need not shrink from touching upon this - glorious theme. Great human intellect God needs not to proclaim His truths. The subject of redemption is, I believe, very imperfectly understood. The general impression of it I conceive to be erroneous. Is it not this--viz., that it is universal in its designs and results, i.e., that Christ died for every man born of Adam? I do not suppose that I misrepresent the views of the vast majority of professing Christians when I describe the work of redemption thus--It is a plan of God s to put to rights the fall of Adam: a way of escape for all from the consequences of sin: a bridge that...
