

The Immigrant Child in the Public Schools (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Ethel Richardson

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Immigrant Child in the Public Schools When immigrant education is spoken of, it is generally assumed that the foreign adult is the recipient of such education. Departments of immigrant education in our schools are usually concerned with night schools, mother classes and the like; but there is a phase of immigrant education that is just as important and probably more important to which little thought has been given, and that is the education of the non-English-speaking child. One takes for granted that all the needs of this child are adequately cared for since he passes through the grades of the public school and receives the same education as English-speaking children. To take so much for granted is to fall far short of the truth. The course of study, the graded system, and usually the teacher herself are all prepared for children who speak and understand our language and traditions. The handicap which the child who does not speak English suffers has never been completely estimated. Meeting his needs, helping him to catch up, interpreting...
