The Seventh Annual Convention of the National Creamery Buttermakers Association met at the Auditorium, Sioux Falls, South Dakota, at 2: 30p. m. , January 24, 1899. Acting President W. K. Boardman in the chair. After several pieces of music rendered by the local band, the Rev. Mr. Scott, of Sioux Falls, offered the following invocation: Oh, thou everlasting Creator, give us, we pray thee, a lasting knowledge of thine own creation. We adore thee as greater than creation, as the creator is greater than that which is made. Oh, thou great Architect of this universe, we know that thou hast told us how to use the structure thou hast mad. We are willing to be instruced in the use of this structure. We therefore pray that thou wilt preside over the deliberations of this body; may their discussions be judicious, their decisions be wise so that they may devise methods and means for relieving the tired hand of toil and lead us on to higher and nobler attainments in the use of the blessings which thou hast ordained that we may be enabled to get out of the world all that thou, the great WorldMaker, wouldst have us get out of thine own creation. As thy leaping lightning becomes our electric light to illuminate our homes, so, Almighty God, may we remember that the Creator is great and that we live not in a selfmade world, nor in a world made...
