Southgate Publishers. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Remembering Hare: The Great Race, Carol Lee, Donna Bell, This beautifully illustrated story, written for children aged 5 - 9 years, is about coming to terms with the death of someone special. Featuring the same much-loved characters from Saying Goodbye to Hare, Rabbit and Buzzard reflect together on the ups and downs, feelings and experiences of the first year following the death of their dear friend Hare, as they watch the 'Great Race'. This lovely book is about treasuring memories, creating a legacy and celebrating the life of the person who has died. Inspired by the author's experience of supporting her young children following the death of their father, this book delivers a hopeful, supportive message for children and adults alike. There are guidance notes included for the adult who is supporting the child; these are aimed at helping further exploration of the questions and feelings children have at this difficult time.
